Prayer

Request	Requester
Please pray for my wife Evie who was informed she has breast cancer. She is the sunshine of my life and supe mom of our three children. She has always cared for others and gave selfishly for all. Please pray for her healing and recovery!	An anonymous requester

Relationship

Request	Requester
My husband is an alcoholic. He almost died in January due his drinking, was hospitalized for a week, went through rehab and now he is drinking again. He didn't work for 2 1/2 years, has had a job for a few weeks now but he is starting to miss work because he has been "sick". I take my marriage vows seriously "for better and for worse, in sickness and in health"...but does this mean I stay by him while he drinks himself to death and ruins us financially? He falls continuously when he has been drinking and hurts himself, damages our home. Please pray for his healing, strength for me. Do I stay or do I divorce?	An anonymous requester
